OUR POSITION —A professed, and we are willing to believe, a sincere friend, asks whether this paper is really an Abolition paper We dodge no responsibilities We frankly admit that the action of the rebels has forced us to become thoroughly abolition in sentiment in self defence. The Catholic organ of Philadelphia, the Universe, expresses our views almost exactly We quote its words, and ask all rational men to consider them

In a recent edition of the Universe the facts by which slavery is at present surrounded were examined, and these facts were shown to illustrate that the institution of slavery is virtually destroyed by the war and that its overthrow is a just punishment on the South for the crime of rebellion, and that the future peace of the nation demands its subversion But we now see that the Boston Post, which is the most respectable Democratic journal in the country, the New York World, which has been a most formidable enemy to the Administration, and the New York Herald, which has upheld slavery with the most signal ability and pertinaciousness for twenty years, now views things in precisely the same light We Irish Democrats may not like this complexion of things, and we may abuse till we burst the Abolitionists as principal instigators of the Southern revolt but facts whether just or unjust, are against us. The Abolitionists have actually carried the day, and it is utterly out of our power to drive them back to night again Abolitionism of the most perpetual and sweeping kind is seizing the entire nation And we may as well not attempt to resist the national current The tide is rising, let us not let it leave us in the solitary sand As there is Christian philanthropy in emancipating the blacks, let us have that philanthropy as it is justice to the nation to destroy slavery, let us be just to the nation, and as the future peace of the country demands the ruin of slavery, let us secure the peace of the country Away with partisanship Away with mere prejudice Away with the nonsense of resisting the national current. Let us at all events accept with grace what we cannot undo or prevent.

ANOTHER GROUND FOR AN ATTACK ON GEN BUTLER —Gen Butler has given rebels and Copperheads another ground for attack, and denunciations of him will, no doubt, henceforth ring louder than ever. It is announced that he has commenced the establishment of a common school system at Norfolk and Fortress Monroe precisely like that of Massachusetts," and that "it will insure the education of hundreds of children" If his vigorous mode of dealing with the rebels at New Orleans won for him from Southern traitors and their Northern sympathizers the name of "Beast Butler," this last act of his is even worse. Who does not know that education makes "Abolitionists"—and then to adopt the Massachusetts system, too!—"'tis too horrible"—Ex

Just think of the awfully cruel act of opening common schools upon the sacred soil of Virginia, and extending the blessings of education to rich and poor alike! At this rate, before many years, the "Old Dominion" will stand a chance to become as intelligent and enlightened as any other State, and this because Gen. Butler in the excess of his barbarous and tyrannical zeal has dared to introduce the system of free schools, which has given to New England and the free States their great pre eminence and intellectual strength

BAD POLICY —If the State Journal, or anybody else supposes that the power of the Union party can be strengthened by attacking the editor of the OREGONIAN, because he was unwilling in 1860, to become a party to the Senatorial bargain, we shall not complain nor at present shall we take part in any quarrel growing out of past events We can fully justify ourselves, whenever we wish to do so, but now there are more important issues before the people, than the personal concerns of any one We are seeking and striving to consolidate and intensify the patriotic sentiment of Oregon, in behalf of freedom, and the safety and integrity of our Republican institutions This object enlists and will command all our exertions If small politicians and office holders imagine that they are the subjects of national controversy, they are much mistaken They are the flies on the coach wheel, and will not raise much dust Prudence and patriotism should teach them that at this time especially, it is very unwise to make disaffection in the ranks of Union men, or to revive personal issues which ought to be buried For ourselves, we ask no favors, that are not consistent with truth and justice, and trust that wise forbearance and silence will save us from the necessity of exposing ignorance and corruption For the present, we decline any controversy If in the future, we are forced into it those who provoke it, may thank their own stupid folly, if they get hurt.

New York Politics

We have already alluded to the fact that the Democracy, which has its head quarters in Tammany Hall, has declared itself independent of the peace [illegible] of the party The New York correspondent of the Bulletin gives a full report of the proceedings [illegible] meeting of the sachems [illegible] when an address was adopted [illegible] which [illegible] reasons which [illegible] with the Regency and [illegible] course which they mean [illegible] pursue

[illegible] statement of the [illegible] Tammany [illegible] the last State Convention

After [illegible] of the Party [illegible] ceed [illegible] Regency have [illegible] out the State for this [illegible] defiance of the wishes of the [illegible] leaders of Tammany [illegible] unresistingly [illegible] quietly [illegible] that was in the days when [illegible] side and when [illegible] the plunder that fell [illegible] for [illegible] alter cases but perhaps it [illegible] quite too closely into [illegible] polled the Tammany men [illegible] ation of the Regency [illegible] ment of the [illegible] convention is likely to keep [illegible] time on the straight [illegible] for their future walk, the country [illegible] at least will be the better [illegible] hereafter be found again in close affiliation with the Regency

The platform which Tammany has adopted for her future guidance, though not precisely in accordance with the views of unconditional loyal men is nevertheless in some of its features all that a reasonable loyalist could ask from party opponents The last plank reads as follows We believe that the time has arrived when the true men of the land should combine for the common cause of our imperilled country against the rebels in arms and their sympathizers in our midst, that all party considerations should be merged in the higher and holier cause of national existence. This maintained and secured let party warfare go on But in the face of the enemy let there be but one sentiment, one principle, one aspiration—that for upholding the Constitution of our country—restoring national unity—and thus bringing to our unhappy land and divided people, by a vigorous prosecution of the war while war is a necessity, the inestimable blessings of lasting peace.

No loyal man can find fault with these sentiments, although he may reasonably demur to the denunciations of the Administration which precede it, as well as to the assumption that the Democratic party is the only one that can save the country Tammany also emphatically declines to accept any one of the Presidential candidates which the Platform sets forth as the favorites of Tammany in spite of the fact that Gen Grant heads the list The Herald taking a hint from this, advises the malcontents to atone for their past sins by assisting in the formation of a Union war party, and helping to elect such a man as Gen Grant to the Presidency

Since they threw off the Regency and the Tammany men have been inoculated anew with the war fever, and seem determined to make up, by extraordinary exertions for their remissness of the past year The special mission which they have now taken upon themselves is to assist in filling up Gen Hancock's depleted corps which embraces 13 of our city regiments, including the Tammany regiment and the Irish brigade With this purpose in view, the Sachems held a meeting in their Hall on Monday last when L F Purdy, James T Brady, Judge Dean and others made eloquent and highly patriotic speeches, on the necessity of making one grand effort for crushing the war This meeting seems to have had a very beneficial effect for during the whole of the week recruits continued to come forward in great numbers The General has no fears but that his corps will be able to boast of full ranks long before the time he has set for the completion of his work Enlistments in behalf of other organizations are also going on in this vicinity with great rapidity, so that all fears of a draft under the present call are almost entirely dissipated

PORTRAIT OF JIM LANE —A Washington correspondent thus daguerreotypes the Kansas Senator

Jim Lane is a medium sized man about 55 years of age, with an exterior rough enough to represent even a worse State than Kansas He dresses well, but the finer his broadcloth the more prominently the characteristics for which he is chiefly noted "stick out" on his countenance Ask any stranger in the galleries who does not know one Senator from another except by reputation, to show you Jim Lane when the Senate is in session and if he is at all familiar with the language of features, he will unmistakably point you to an individual with a singularly shaped head and face—broad at the forehead but narrowing toward the chin like a letter V—a light crop of hair, but what there is protruding from both sides, "like quills upon the fretful porcupine," and upon which apparently, the only comb used is the fine tooth comb furnished by Nature, dark wild looking eyes sunk far back under a formidable brow a nose expressive of anything but refinement—neither Grecian nor Roman particularly but a sort of anomaly which the science of ethnology sheds no light upon a large ill shaped mouth which is usually crammed with tobacco The man who can witness all these and not attribute them to Jim Lane must be a dull scholar, and I would advise him to take lessons from Fowler & Wells immediately But if Jim's features do not advertise him sufficiently, his sitting posture will help a little when he throws himself back in his chair, puts both legs on his desk in front of him, dovetails his hands together behind his head or puts one hand in his breeches pocket and thrusts the other in his shirt bosom, and practices salivary gymnastics at a spittoon about ten feet distant With all this there is a good deal of the gentleman in Lane's manner and he is very courteous and affable in conversation I think he rather prides himself on his rough exterior, and wouldn't be polished if he could

SLAVERY —Whether slavery is an element of weakness or strength does not so much enter into the reasoning of the masses on the subject, as the fact that it has arrayed itself against the Government set at defiance the Constitution trampled upon the flag nullified the laws and plunged the nation into a bloody war solely to establish for itself a Government on the ruins of one that was permitted to entirely control As the war progresses, this fact becomes more apparent and necessarily brings all those who stand by the Government and insist upon a total and complete vindication of its honor and authority, into antagonistic relations to an institution the existence of which they would otherwise regard with apathy if not indifference The longer the struggle is continued on the part of slavery, the sharper will become the hostility of the people to it If the popular verdict is made up to day or next year that slavery must die, it will be because the people recognize it that the nation shall not live, and not so much because there is a quickened conviction on the part of the masses that of itself it might not be permitted to exist —*Cin. [illegible] Admiral [illegible] has just [illegible] from [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] ing to [illegible] after [illegible] fighting [illegible] 150 killed [illegible] 1,600 prisoners The [illegible] was 1,000 killed

[illegible] of the 21st [illegible] follow [illegible] Plymouth [illegible] stores and [illegible] HOKE

A telegram has been received [illegible] from [illegible] Rocky Mount [illegible] of the [illegible] Plymouth [illegible] 1600 [illegible] guns [illegible] garrison [illegible] Our loss was about 100 [illegible] It is [illegible] killed, 2 gunboats were sunk another disabled and another small steamer captured

A special to the Evening Post says the heavy rains of last night will deter operations

The Navy Department is trying to regain the ground lost at Plymouth and our wounded there will be attended to

A letter dated Grand Ecore the 11th, states that Gen Banks is lying falling back to Grand Ecore 35 miles from Pleasant Hill, 2 miles from Mansfield and 95 miles from Shreveport will advance again as soon as reinforcements and adequate supplies are received The loss of the artillery is a trivial matter is nearly the whole fighting owing to the heavily wooded nature of the country, must be done by infantry

Admiral Porter's fleet will operate as far as possible the extent depending on the height of water Another battle must follow The enemy appears to have moved his whole force near here, to crush out the Union army

According to the reports of prisoners Kirby Smith, Dick Taylor Green Magruder and Price are all in the field against Banks They lost in the recent fight at Pleasant Hill three to our one The lack of water between Hill and Mansfield renders it prudent to fall back to Grand Ecore where new supplies could be issued sufficient for a long uninterrupted forward march

ST LOUIS, April 21—The Republican's Red river correspondent of the 12th says Gen Smith's command began crossing the river opposite Grand Ecore that day for an overland trip to Vicksburg it being understood that Grant has sent orders to Smith to return to that place Rebel prisoners say they had 25 000 men in the recent battles that they lost 1,500 on Saturday [illegible] killed and wounded on the field Our loss on Saturday was about 1,500 Our wounded were taken to Grand Ecore [illegible] killed were left on the field but it is reported they were afterwards buried by the cavalry This correspondent says great dissatisfaction was expressed at Banks generalship in the battle of the 8th It was fought contrary to Franklin's plan Both Franklin and Lee [illegible] tested against having the cavalry so far in advance Smith protested against the retreat from Pleasant Hill [illegible] as he wished to pursue the flying rebels Banks ordered the return of the entire army to Grand Ecore It is difficult to determine what the [illegible] the expedition will be It will require some time to re organize the army and if the river continues to fall Alexandria will be [illegible] into the [illegible] operations instead of some point above All the forces at Alexandria have been ordered to Grand Ecore Fears were entertained that the rebels might attack the former place and destroy a large amount of the army stores

GRAND ECORE April 14 —A detachment of the 3d cavalry brigade under Lieut Col [illegible] of the 6th Illinois mounted infantry, made a reconnoisance yesterday to Bayou Bridge 20 miles on the road towards Pleasant Hill Light suits out a small body of the enemy were seen who fled precipitately Scouting parties went out who [illegible] their pickets but discovered no indications of the enemy Our troops are in excellent spirits and are anxious for another advance Should Red river fail to [illegible] gable and advance [illegible] for [illegible] the certainty of holding and occupying Alexandria and Natchitoches remains and [illegible] the forward movement [illegible] success

The latest advices from Gen Steel were that he was within 60 miles or two days march of Shreveport with 10,000 men

Admiral Porter, with two monitors and his flagship were well up the river from Grand Ecore a week since, prepared to operate against the rebel seat of government in Louisiana

GRAND ECORE April 13 —About 25 miles below [illegible] on the left bank of the Red river the rebels [illegible] opened fire on the transports Clara Bell and Rob Roy and threw 12 shots into them

A force of 1,500 men [illegible] part of the rebel Gen [illegible] came down in front of the battery poured a [illegible] musketry into the steamers which were getting the worst of it when a small gunboat came up [illegible] and shelled the battery and compelled the rebels to fall back

NEW YORK April 21 —Alexandria La advices of the 7th and 8th say all speculators are excluded from the post The military authorities will conduct all the trade of sending cotton and sugar to New Orleans selling on Government account

The gunboats [illegible] were aground above Grand Ecore The [illegible] Osage and [illegible] were ordered out of the river in consequence of the falling of the water The [illegible] was ordered to Mound City

NEW YORK April 25 —Richmond advices report the flight of Volunteers [illegible] has been accepted by [illegible] of Justice

NEWBERN April 20 —Dispatches by the steamer Perry which has just arrived from Plymouth bring [illegible] and injury of the [illegible] and Whitehead by the rebel ram, which now commands the approaches to Plymouth, and prevents [illegible] of our boats The ram now has all the inland waters of the North and there is no knowing where she may strike her next blow Firing has been heard all the morning in the direction of Washington and [illegible] is supposed an attack in that place has commenced Reinforcements will be sent from here by Gen Peck So soon as he heard of the attack on Plymouth, he commenced sending reinforcements but they [illegible] reach that place [illegible] The rebel ram [illegible] This vessel draws 9 feet of water has 4 guns and is built like the Merrimac There is quite a rebel force at Kinston which it is believed intends an attack on this place as soon as [illegible] No [illegible] on

The Mormons

Fitz Hugh Ludlow in his trip to the Pacific coast last year stopped at Salt Lake city to see the lions and other animals which fill that strange menagerie In a recent number of the Golden Era he gives his impressions, of which we quote

I had unusually good opportunities for getting a [illegible] with the Mormons and came to a very different conclusion [illegible] from that which I [illegible] In their [illegible] fully believe to a much greater extent than is generally supposed Even their leaders [illegible] hypocrites, [illegible] Whatever they may do [illegible] the Mormon system they [illegible] at least from long habit, [illegible] [illegible] selfish natures [illegible] merely for the temp[illegible] [illegible] But the [illegible] individual by the [illegible] personal [illegible] [illegible] when a man shuts behind [illegible] with the lawful barbaric [illegible] the [illegible] stand guard at the [illegible] wives [illegible] but [illegible] compensation [illegible] Brigham Young [illegible] with Heber Kimball [illegible] they can [illegible] their wealth [illegible] world is barred to them If Brigham Young should try to run away to morrow, his own fanatic myrmidons would blow his brains out before he got through Parley's Canon

The hypothesis of hypocrisy appears still more untenable to me when I consider what the Mormons have done and suffered for their ideas Hypocrisy, it seems to me could not have come from a haven into the most inaccessible wilderness in the world and abandon ing the fertile slopes where vice may revel in prosperity on the mere condition of cloaking itself in obtrusive forms, wring from the unwilling breast of a parched desert at once subsistence and the freedom to incorporate numerality into a creed See by how slight a compromise with conventional decency—by merely keeping their vice secret and abstaining from the promulgation in theory of the evil which they practice in life bad men enjoy in the very heart of civilization immunity for a crime virtually identical with that which has made Mormonism, a stench in Christendom But the Mormons have fled to a desert, where life itself would be a burden to most of us, by incredible labor have replaced the sage brush and the alkali plains with smiling gardens green meadows luxuriant orchards and golden harvest fields have never ceased to wage battle with hostile nature, knowing that armistice means defeat to them of the sorest kind, and that one year's neglect of their laborious system of artificial irrigation would blot out the triumphs of the past painful years, they stand thus, holding the desert from their doors by main force—and all that they may do as religion what other men practice as crime If this be hypocrisy it bears most no malous fruits

But it is nothing of the kind The whole secret of their fanaticism is intelligible the moment that you understand one fact—they are saturated through and through with a love of the Old Testament civilization as understood by them. You cannot talk with one of their youngest men, like Young or Kimball, for an hour without seeing that their national model is the Jewish people They are an attempt to revive the Israelitish Civilization in the Nineteenth Century

Retiring from the Practice of Medicine

A CARD.

DR L J CZAPKAY begs leave to announce to the public and particularly to his patrons on the Pacific Coast, that he is about to close his business with the view of retiring for the present from the arduous labors of his profession

As it is his intention during the ensuing Fall to leave the United States for the purpose of visiting Europe he will not receive any new patients after the first day of July, 1864 Those therefore who may desire his services will apply within a reasonable time Dr Czapkay desires to assure those who are now under his care that they continue to receive all the attention which his obligations prescribe and their cases respectively demand Those who hold contracts guaranteeing a cure are hereby requested to report to Dr Czapkay before the first day of June 1864 whether or not they are satisfied that a cure has been effected in their cases respectively All who do not thus report within the time specified will be regarded and treated as cured

In taking leave of his patients and the public Dr Czapkay desires to express his [illegible] and gratitude for the extraordinary patronage bestowed upon him and the confidence reposed in his professional ability

During his residence in California Dr Czapkay has treated successfully upwards of twenty five thousand patients which is the best guarantee that his course of treatment has been rewarded with success at once personally gratifying and almost unprecedented in the annals of medicine

Any physician in good standing who may desire to purchase the interest of Dr Czapkay in his "Institute," and the good will of his business, may make application and state proposals

Address Dr L J CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

OUR SHIP YARD —It may not be gene known that Portland has a ship yard such is the case and any person visiting Portland by taking a stroll opposite steamship landing will now find a pre modeled schooner on the ways, of 13 ft be 36 ft on deck and 4 ft hold building by C Choton for Messrs Warren & Steph en use in the Oyster trade between Shoalw Bay and Astoria The new ferry boat is there, lying with part of her machinery board waiting for a boiler This b much larger than we supposed, being 90 in length, with 18 feet of beam A wl boat has just passed through the proces repair, receiving a deck, keel, and a new c of paint, and is now ready for use as a ple ure boat The remains of the Maria hav resting place at this ship yard, but will made useful again before the season is ende The dry dock forms quite a feature to the cality, there being three sections of it, ca ble of taking on 145 feet of boat Altogeth our ship yard is an important branch of business of our vicinity, at present

THE EVER LIVING PLANT —A remarkab plant has recently been introduced in Califo nia, that has greatly attracted the attentio of the lovers of the curious It is called th "Siempre Viva," or "Ever Living Mexica plant" It is a species of fern, and as broug from Mexico resembles a dried up or dea cluster of fibrous roots When placed in glass of water it expands quickly into life The dry fibers spread out into broad leaves o a dark green hue, and the cluster of an inch or two in diameter enlarges before the eye t a beautiful plant of six or eight inches width Mr. Sutton has samples of them at his Shoot ing Gallery, in this city It is claimed tha in their dry state these plants will last "forever," although we are unable to learn that they have ever yet been tested on that point.

OREGON CITY WOOLEN MANUFACTURING COMPANY —We learn that the following were elected directors of the corporation, at the recent meeting of the stockholders Joel Palmer, L D C Latourette, Daniel Harvey, W C Dement J L Barlow John Myers, and Arthur Warner They are all energetic and enterprising men and will safely accomplish the commendable work which they have undertaken [illegible] are invited for the erection of a building [illegible] two stories high, of wood or brick as may hereafter be determined by the directors.

AGGRAVATING We observed a man in a feverish state [illegible] yesterday, whose general temper [illegible] usually understood to be mild, and upon inquiring as to the cause of his ruffled temper, we ascertained that he was the owner of a fine skiff, which he has frequent occasion to use in connection with his business, but which was just then among the missing—supposed to have been stolen. He was greatly disappointed upon going where it was to find it wasn't there.

FIRE ALARM —Yesterday morning, about 9 o'clock, the fire bells pealed forth to their utmost, in sounding a fire alarm which thrilled to the very hearts of the people The machines were brought out and "put through" in the direction of the fire, which was on Second street, between Oak and Pine It turned out as usual, resulting in little damage to the building The fire originated from sparks falling from the chimney, burning the exterior of the roof

INCIDENTS —Among the incidents connected with the fire yesterday morning, we noticed No 2's Company "playing" in their Engine House, taking suction from the cistern under their floor, stretching hose across the street to the fire Columbian Company No. 3 ran with such force that the forward axle of their Engine was sprung, rendering repairs necessary It was immediately after taken to the Oregon Iron Works

FOR THE CASCADES —The steamer Wilson G Hunt carried 175 tons of freight and fifty passengers to the Cascades yesterday On the down trip she brought 16 passengers There was no connection above the Dalles, and hence a light treasure was received. The steamer Express took about 300 head of stock—sheep principally, and the Rescue also went up with a load

FROM ASTORIA —The O S N Co's steamer Julia and the C S Co's steamer John H. Couch, arrived from Astoria last evening. The former left the schooner Monitor at Oak Point, and the latter took the Jenny Jones from St Helens to Astoria The steamship Sierra Nevada and the bark Jane A Falkinburg went to sea at 6 o'clock A M yesterday.

ARRESTED —"Scotty," well known at the Recorder's Court, was arrested yesterday for making too free with people on the streets, in an effort to obtain a hearing for his peculiar views on various topics He has a penchant for talking, and will probably obtain a "hearing" before his Hon Judge McCoy, to-day

RECORDER'S COURT —Robert Blair was fined $5 and costs yesterday, for being drunk and disorderly, which amount he paid and received a discharge The following complaints are docketed for this morning City of Portland vs Joseph Delevan Andrew J Hunter, and H N Overy, violent and disorderly conduct

BADLY FROZEN —The friends of Rev C S Kingsley will regret to learn that he has met a severe misfortune in having his feet badly frozen The casualty occurred near Idaho City, while he engaged in getting timbers for the erection of a M E Church edifice at that city

OUR SHIP YARD —It may not be generally known that Portland has a ship yard but such is the case, as any person visiting East Portland, by taking a stroll opposite the steamship landing will now find a pretty modeled schooner on the ways, of 13 ft beam 36-ft ton deck and 4 ft hold building by Capt Clinton for Messrs Warren & St [illegible] for use in the Oyster trade between Shoalwater Bay and Astoria. The new ferry boat is also there lying with part of her machinery on board, waiting for a boiler. This boat is much larger than we supposed, being [illegible] feet in length, with 18 feet of beam. A whale boat has just passed through the process of repair, receiving a deck keel, and a new coat of paint, and is now ready for use as a pleasure boat. The remains of the Mariа have a resting place at this ship yard but will be made useful again before the season is ended. The dry dock forms quite a feature to the locality there being three sections of it, capable of taking on 140 feet of boat. Altogether our ship yard is an important branch of the business of our vicinity at present.

THE EVER LIVING PLANT —A remarkable plant has recently been introduced in California, that has greatly attracted the attention of the lovers of the curious. It is called the "Siempre Viva," or "Ever Living Mexican plant." It is a species of fern and as brought from Mexico resembles a dried up or dead cluster of fibrous roots. OREGON CITY WOOLEN MANUFACTURING COMPANY.—We learn that the following were elected directors of the corporation, at the recent meeting of the stockholders: Jno Palmer, L D C Latourette, Daniel Harvey, W C Domont, J L Barlow, John Myers, and Arthur Warner. They are all energetic and enterprising men, and will safely accomplish the commendable work which they have undertaken. Bids are invited for the erection of a building 188 by 52 feet, two stories high, of wood or brick, as may hereafter be determined by the directors.

AGGRAVATING.—We observed a man in a feverish state of frenzy yesterday, whose general temperament is usually understood to be mild, and upon questioning as to the cause of his ruffled temper, we ascertained that he was the owner of a fine skiff, which he has frequent occasion to use in connection with his business, but which was just then among the missing—supposed to have been stolen. BADLY FROZEN —The friends of Rev C S Kingsley will regret to learn that he has met a severe misfortune in having his feet badly frozen. The casualty occurred near Idaho City, while he engaged in getting timbers for the erection of a M E Church edifice at that city.

NO COUNCIL TO NIGHT — The Board of Councilmen having changed the time for their sessions to Thursday evenings of each week there will be no meeting until to morrow, at 7 o'clock P. M.

COMMITTED TO JAIL —A half breed commonly known as French Joe, was [illegible] [illegible] 1st Street on Friday [illegible] last week [illegible] during that night [illegible] Mr John H Hunsaker of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Gray [illegible] to the charge of theft [illegible] when the defendant was fined $ [illegible] and [illegible] three months in the county jail—the latter clause will most likely be accepted as a means of paying the penalty. A city chain gang would be a good institution in Portland and besides saving the county an expense in such cases might be of service to the city.

ONE NIGHT MORE —The Theatre will be open this evening for one more exhibition of the [illegible] Mirror of the War. We know of no better way in which a dollar can be expended, to insure "value received," than to [illegible] at this Panorama. A fine lot of presents will be distributed at the close of the exhibition to night.

DELEGATES —The delegates to the County Convention from the Sandy precinct are R Wilmot, E Royal, St John's precinct C B Comstock. Sauvie's Island precinct Leonard Jewett —Wilmot — Tomlinson. Powell's Valley precinct M Wing, James Royal, J Powell.

MURDERED —The body of a murdered man was found on Friday last near the crossing of Bridge Creek on the road from the Dalles to Canyon City.

SANITARY FUND RECEIPTS —From Fort Simcoe W T [illegible] W Wright $60 00 in currency, given as follows Mrs L A Wilbur $[illegible] Miss M M Bancroft and Alex [illegible] $10 [illegible] A B [illegible]croft Jas McGraw J H [illegible] H C Thompson $[illegible] each. A HOLBROOK.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE—That Shelby has received by this steamer the finest assorted stock of Boots and Shoes that has ever before been offered in this market. An ocular demonstration would convince you of the fact. See to it, and consult your interest.

Convalescence after Typhoid Fever —Every one who knows anything of this fever knows that the period of convalescence is extremely long if indeed the health be ever perfectly re established. In such cases the PERUVIAN SYRUP supplies a want long felt by the profession, and has restored invalids to health in a remarkably rapid manner when all the usual tonic remedies had failed.
ap-2d6t

Dr Hostetter's Stomach Bitters —The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties and it is recommended to mothers enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female [life] it will be found an [illegible] use of and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers every where.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.
It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron without further oxidation has been deemed impossible.
In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN, and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A A HAYES M D

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to overestimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica and many of the most eminent and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the LIVER, HEART, KIDNEYS, DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM, and to have great control over
SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve
PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER
without a solvent. This considered impossible by the scientific world is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J R Chilton of this city and Dr [illegible] Booth U S Mint Philadelphia. The importance of the discovery was so highly appreciated by the faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners. American Medical Monthly July 6 1858 page [illegible]
This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms Consumption, Cancer Heart Liver and Kidney Diseases Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc

AS A TONIC
Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color. [illegible] to pale, relaxed and feeble he becomes full strong and florid.
Full directions accompany each bottle.
Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr H Anders & Co Physicians and Chemists New York

PERSONAL ORDINATION

I beleave in spechial ordainments sum A fu men were ordained tow be honest in fact poetri haz bin rit tu prove this posishun, which goes on tu say, "An honnest man is the noblest work ov God," but the demand for the work has bin so limited, that I hev thought a large share of the first edishun must still be in the hands of the author The most trubble we all ov us hev iz tew find out our ordainings tow a rpst We kommence life—we are sumbody s sweet baby—we hev flaxin hare—we go to distrik skule—we slide down hill—pla hookey—we hev grate differculty with our n zes—we larn how tu smoke and find ourselves men grown all to onst Thus far natur has piped; and we hev daust, and there haint bin no fiddler tu pa, but now cums in the speshial ordainment time I hev bin thru with awl this miself, and stood on the threshold a well developed young man a looking around reddy tu be ordained I felt as tho i wud giv $75 at leaste if sumbody wud cum along and ordain me, and let me pitch in I waited for about 6 weeks if i rekolect rite, and never got the fust smel ov enny ordaining Then i konkluded tew ordain mi self, hit or miss The fust thing i tride on waz 80 akers ov land in the western kuntry I ordained the venison and wild turkeys and possums tew leave, for i waz a going tu farm it I ordained a log house and mutch rale fanse immegiately, and put in a krop ov wheat, and prokured swine, and a yoke of stagge I worked 5 years, had the ager, and the krops prinsipally, and managed to sink the farm and staggs, i haint seen neither of them from that da, and don't think i want tu I didn't seem tu be speshially ordained for farming in the western kuntry Sinse that time i hev tried every kind ov biziness that i kould hear ov, and haint bin speshially ordained yet tu mi knollege The fault awl lays in the different kinds ov bizness, i haint the leaste dout. The bizness that waz designed for me, proberbly haint bin ordained yet, but i intend tu keep boreing, and when i dow strike ile, there will be a good time generally in mi immegiate naberhood. I hev got enny quantity of friends, (they don't seem tu cum bi ordinashun) i got mine, and manage tu keep them for enny thing but advise, yu kant ask enny thing ov a man that he loves to give more, and that kosts him less, than advice. It is hard work tu live on advice, and hev enny left over, unless you are speshially ordained One ov my frends, a fust rate feller enuff, (he iz in the Army ov the Pottermak now, giving advice tu one ov the rigements there, i think he is a brigadear, or tha hev bin teazing him to be one, I don't kno which) rote me a letter a short time sinze, and advized me tu start on a lekturing tower If thare is enny 5 or 6 things i dispise, it is a lekturing around the kuntry If i was on the retired list of Dokters ov Divinities, with a half cured bronkeetis in mi thrut, and had a lektur 2 hours and a ½ long on the kuller ov the Red Se, i presoom i mite travel with it

THE MULE.

The mule is half hoss and half jackass, and then comes to a full stop, natur diskovering her mistake. Tha waigh more akordin to their heft than enny other kreetur except a crowbar. Tha kant hear enny kwicker, nor further than the hoss, yet their ears are big enough for snow shoes You kant trust them with enny one whose life aint worth more than the mule's The only wa to keep them in the pastur, is to turn them into a medder jinein, and let them jump out. Tha ar reddy for use just as soon as tha will du to abuze. Tha haint got enny more frends than a Chatam street trader, and will live on huckleberry brush with an okkasional chanse at kanada thissels Tha ar a modern invenshun; I don't think the Bible deludes to them at tall. Tha sell for more than enny other domestick animals You kant tell their age by lookin intu their mouth, enny more than you kould a Mexikan kannon's. Tha never had no disease that a good klub wont heel If tha ever die, tha must kome right tu life agen, for i never heerd nobody sa "ded mule" Tha ar like sum men, verry korrupt at hart, ive known them to be good for six months just tu git a chance to kick sumbody I never owned wun, nor never mean tu, unless there is a United States law passed rekwirin it The only reason why tha ar pashunt, is bekos tha ar ashamed ov themselves I have seen eddikated mules in a sirkus—tha would kick and bite tremenjis I would not sa what i am forsed tu sa agin the mule, if his berth want an outrage, and he haint tu blame for it Enny man who is willin tu drive a mule ought to be exempt by law from runnin fur the legislatur Tha ar the strongest kreeture on arth, and heaviest akkordin tu their size; I herd tell ov wun who fell oph from the toe-path on the kannel, an sunk as soon as he touched bottom, but he kept right on toein the bote tu the next stashun, breethin threw his ears, whitch wuz out ov water about 3 feet 6 inches I didn't see this but an oxshunear told me ov it, and i never new an oxshunear tu lye unless he would make sumthin out ov it.

PIGS.

Az the white rose wakens intu buty, so duz the white Pig cum tu gladden us His ears ar like the lilas leaf, played upon by the young zephurz at eventide, his silk is the wool of buty, and his bigger iz the outline ov loveliness. His food is white nectar, drawn from the full fountain ov affecshun He waxes fatter and more alik evera da, and hangs from the buzzum of his muther like an image ov alabaster. He laffeth at forms, and curleth his tail still closer, as his feast goeth on, then he riseth with gladness, and wandreth with his kindred beside the still waters His brothers and sisters are az like him as flakes ov snow, and all the day long among the red klover and beneath the white thorn, he makes his joy, and leadeth a life arkadian. His words are low musik, and his language the untutored freshness of natur His pastime iz the histry of innersence, and his lezsure iz elegance He walketh where grass leadeth and gambles tow the dalliance of dewy fragranse. He gathereth strawe in his mouth, and basteth awa on errants of gladness. He listeneth tew the repr of ov his parent, his ackshuns are the laws of perliteness, and his logick iz the power of instinkt. His da time is peace and his even is gentle forgitfulness Az he taketh on years, he loveth kool plases, and delveth in liquids, and stirreth the arth to a fatness, and painteth hisself in dark cullors, a reffuge from flize. and the torments ov live He forgeteth his parent, and bekometh his own master, and larneth the mystery of food, groweth hugely Men gaze at his porkyness, and kount his vallu by pounds and lie in wate for him, and sacrifise him, and give his flesh salt for its safety * * * This is Pig life

STRATEGY.

Strategy is trying to reduce a swamp by katching the fever and ager out ov it. The only rezon why McClellan failed in redoocing the Chickahominy swamps was that, noomerikally spekin, the swamps had more agers than Little Mac had men to katch them. It is doo to the trooth ov history [to the printer of the Pokepsee Eagle don't mewtilate mi spelling and print that 'his story,' for that is longer n the [illegible] law, if yu kno how long that is—as I was re marking, it is doo to the trooth ov history to state that Mac did remarkably well, awl thing konsidered He kot so menny ov the agers that he was called the Sezer of the Chickahominy

LIFE

Awl ov us komplain of the shortness ov life, yet we all waste more than we uze

THE EAST AND THE WEST.—It is both poor taste and poor policy to institute any comparisons between different sections of the country, with a view to elevating any one of them at the expense of any other Everybody knows that from various and obvious causes differences exist between different regions as to the predominant characteristics of the respective populations Where these populations come together in the support of a common cause their peculiarities coalesce and give and simble completeness to the efforts all expended in seeking its success Beyond these people who have been put asunder by distance and circumstances are brought by the same emergency, into a contact mutually beneficial The conduct of the West has been noble Patriotism has been almost unanimous beyond the Alleghanies, and it has expressed itself grandly in forming armies and on hard fought fields The whole nation is indebted for not a little of its now assured safety to the heartiness with which the younger States have rushed forward to its rescue and its defence—the unflinching determination they have shown to assert and maintain its supremacy It must not be forgotten however, that the brilliant achievements have been the work not of sectional forces alone so to speak, but of the Union of the somewhat diverse forces that belong to the entire country. The navy is mainly the production of the seaboard In other days it has not been the favorite of the interior, and those who dwell far away from the ocean have looked coldly upon its claims and jealously upon its fame This will no longer be the case The part taken by the gunboats and frigates in opening the Mississippi has added a brilliant Western chapter to the naval history of our republic, and brought the gallant conquerors on the seas to the very doors of the gallant pioneers of the land thus giving the latter an opportunity to acknowledge the worth of the former. Then, again, troops from the New England Commonwealths are in the tropics, on the prairies, in the Army of the Cumberland, standing on the outermost boundary lines, and giving a good account of themselves, as representatives of Northern intelligence and Northern pluck This proximity and concentration of armed citizens from all quarters of the land, sharing the dangers of the contest and upholding the authority of the Union, side by side, with a sympathizing resolution and a grand rivalry, is a grand fact It is prophetic of a Union in the future, based upon a reciprocally enlightened intercourse such as the past has hardly known, and which will undoubtedly be one of the good results of the war To this end let the fraternization go on with the cherishing of the most amicable feelings The East can gain something from the West, and the West may reap advantages from the East to its broad territories Both sections have met for one loyal purpose Shoulder to shoulder, they are marching and fighting for democratic institutions; and thus combined they are an invincible host The sanguinary tasks of the battle fields over, they will, when the bright, serene hour of peace returns, rejoice in the possession of a republic from which they have driven out the demon of disunion, and with a concord that shall be cemented by higher and better considerations than mere political relations With a few more earnest campaigns, not only should the vile rebellion be overthrown, but a oneness should be obtained for the nation, founded upon a clearer understanding throughout its borders, of the way in which a needful diversity of interests can be congregated into a National and social harmony to give the land a greatness which the imagination can as yet hardly conceive —Boston Transcript

THE PRINTER'S GRIEF.—Some one has described graphically, in verse, one of the most harrowing experiences of a printer's life

A tear was in the printer's eye,
  A shadow on his face
As solemnly and silently
  He gazed within his case

Methought some deep and heavy grief
  Was preying on his heart
And that a kindly spoken word
  Might happiness impart

No sooner did this thought occur,
  Than by his side I stood—
"Tell me my friend thy grief" I said
  "What sorrows o'er thee brood?"

He gazed at me a moment then
  He turned away and laughed
And answering, said "A column, good,
  Of Nonpareil I've pi'd"

THE SOLDIER'S SEAT.—The Springfield News is indebted to a correspondent for the following, which is too good to be lost, and for the accuracy of which he vouches—

"A short time ago, in the loyal city of Philadelphia a 'largely' dressed female, answering the description of an F F V, hailed a street car and just as it stopped to take her aboard a Union soldier stepped out of the car On entering several seats were vacant and this would be lady inquired in a very sharp tone"

'Where did that soldier sit?

No answer

Again, but in a more shrill tone than at first the same question was put—

'Where did that soldier sit?'

Still no reply from any of the passengers the car going ahead, the 'lady' still unseated, when the same question was fairly spit out between her teeth

"WHERE DID THAT MAN SIT?"

An honest Hibernian quietly seated near the unhappy female, and no doubt being desirous of relieving her in some slight degree replied

'Faith, ma'am, he sat on his end, and took it away with him'

What the rest of the occupants of the car did I do not know but one gentleman left as speedily as possible and the above information through him was too rich to be long kept a secret
